One Course, Two Visions: A Comparison of the Teachings of the Circle of Atonement and Ken Wapnick on 'A Course In Miracles' By Robert Perry, Greg Mackie, Allen Watson

A Course in Miracles has emerged within our lifetime as an authoritative spiritual text. Yet what does it really say? In the Course's brief history, two comprehensive visions have been offered, each by respected teachers and organizations, each based on many years of personal dedication and scholarly investigation. One vision comes from Ken Wapnick and the Foundation for A Course in Miracles. The other comes from Robert Perry and his colleagues at the Circle of Atonement. One might assume that these visions would differ only in the details; yet in fact they diverge dramatically, leading to different ways of approaching, understanding, and living the Course. These differences have naturally led to confusion for Course students. The purpose of this book is to clear up that confusion. It addresses how the two visions relate to each other, delineating both their similarities and their differences. It then goes on to explore the key differences, and how they impact the Course student's life.

Editorial Review

Review

"If you've...lived with unresolved confusion [about the Course],...do yourself a favor and take a look." -- Sharon Edwards, in

Facilitators like myself are devoting much time to group study of this material. It is stirring much interest, but most importantly is a major clarification of Course study. -- Carl Banholzer

I found your argument entirely logical and convincing. Thanks for having the guts to state your convictions. -- Ray Giddens

From the Author

This book grew out of a series of requests we received to clarify the relationship between our view of A Course in Miracles and Ken Wapnick's. Many people felt we shouldn't discuss differences, but we also received quite a number of priceless letters from people saying that this book had really renewed their relationship with the Course.

From the Inside Flap

"A Course in Miracles" has emerged within our lifetime as an authoritative spiritual text. Yet what does it really say? In the Course's brief history, two comprehensive visions have been offered, each by respected teachers and organizations, each based on many years of personal dedication and scholarly investigation. One vision comes from Ken Wapnick and the Foundation for "A Course in Miracles" (FACIM). The other comes from Robert Perry and his colleagues at the Circle of Atonement.

One might assume that these visions would differ only in the details; yet in fact they diverge dramatically, leading to different ways of approaching, understanding, and living the Course. These differences have naturally led to confusion for Course students. The purpose of this book is to clear up that confusion. It addresses how the two visions relate to each other, delineating both their similarities and their differences. It then goes on to explore the key differences, and how they impact the Course student's life.
