Waltz on the Wild Side (Dancing under the Stars) (Volume 2) By Alana Albertson

Two ballroom superstars from different corners of the world. Former best friends now sworn bitter rivals. Salomé The dance I choreographed won an Emmy—but someone else claimed it. The man I loved just got engaged—but another woman is wearing his ring. I'm the reigning world champion ballroom dancer—but I'm not "TV material." I'm too curvy. I'm too short. I'm too real. Screw Hollywood. I'm no longer hiding behind the wings. I'm no longer letting people steal my life. I'm ready for my turn in the spotlight—no matter what the consequences. Vika I left my country, my home, my language, my heart. For a chance to have a life in America—live without prejudice and pain. For freedom, I've given my heart and soul. Love now means nothing to me but success and security. Until I met him—the long haired rock and roll drummer with a boyish grin. True love and acceptance will destroy everything I've worked for. I'm ready for my chance for happiness - no matter what the consequences. This book is a stand alone chick lit esqu new adult romance. This book is not a sequel to Love Waltzes In and can be read on it's own.
