The Secrets of the West Coast Masters 2nd Edition By Dru West

The Secrets of the West Coast Masters 2nd Edition are revolutionary new techniques of manipulating and training the marijuana plant to produce previously unfathomable yields and quality, while enabling medical growers to stay within their legal limits. Working with fewer plants allows the grower to focus more time on each individual plant. This is the best way to learn the characteristics and tendencies of your chosen strain, to master it and achieve the best possible results. Using the Secrets of the West Coast Masters you can yield more with 2 plants than you normally would with 10. These secrets have been developed in recent years in cities across the West Coast of the United States. It a true grass roots movement that has been developed, used and refined in basements, garages, bedrooms, and attics throughout the mountains and valleys. Secrets of the West Coast Masters can and should be used anywhere in the world where growing medical marijuana is legal. West Coast Masters are dedicated to helping those suffering from cancer, chronic pain and other debilitating diseases, for who marijuana is the only medicine that makes their life more comfortable. We hope the growing techniques outlined by the West Coast Masters ensure that they will always have access to enough low cost medicine for their needs.
