Editorial Review

Review

I have been a permanent makeup instructor for many years. I have never seen a manual/ book put together as well as The Permanent Makeup Manual . It is full of pictures, illustration and information that explains all avenues that need to be learn in order to be a successful permanent makeup artist. Even many of my students from the pass are purchasing the manual. It has important information on undertones, mixing of colors, procedure techniques and so much more that are there to reflect on when needed. --Sule Loggenberg, Permanent Makeup Artist

About the Author
