Vies Ordinaires En Coree Du Nord (Collections Litterature) (French Edition) By Demick Barbara

Articles, reportages, documentaires ont, depuis des années, tenté d'éclairer la difficile réalité d'un des derniers régimes totalitaires de la planète, vestige de la Guerre froide: la Corée du Nord. Mais c'est la première fois qu'un livre trace un véritable portrait de ce pays que la folie de ses dirigeants (Kim Il-sung et son fils Kim Jong-il) a précipité dans le chaos. Correspondante du Los Angeles Times à Séoul de 2001 à 2008, Barbara Demick y dresse un état des lieux effarant: propagande, censure, arbitraire, famines à répétition, faillite totale de l'économie, de l'éducation... Une tragédie humaine hors norme.
