From the Author

I loved the challenge in writing the ecstatic, meditative trance state involved in shibari rope bondage. It's amazing to look at my hopes that people will look it up to see the beauty of the ropes.

My first hero, Desmond, is one of my toughest dominants. He's a tortured soul, strict, hyper-responsible. I love that Ava's gentleness brings him to his knees for the first time in his life.

James in the second story is one of my favorite heroes ever—and one of my editor's, too! As a war journalist he's been through so much, and the ropes offer him a safe way to express his rage at the cruelty of the world. He's an incredibly strong character, one I couldn't help but fall in love with. Marina is every bit as strong as he is, and it was a joy to write her journey, to explore the way James broke through her tough reserve and made her open up.

This was one of my favorite books to write-it made me cry as I typed, and I loved every minute of it.
