The White Magic Book By John Le Breton

A mysterious book, with a mysterious past, first published in 1919, like a beautiful antique teapot that's still in daily use, The White Magic Book serves up answers to life's daily questions. "This book," Farber writes in the Introduction, "is your personal, portable shrine, twenty-four hour medium, and in it is the answer to your every question. All you have to do is use it with sincerity and an open mind, and you will be truly surprised and delighted to experience moments of synchronicity on a daily basis."

The White Magic Book is like the Internet. There's information out there to be had, and this wonderful little book helps us access it. Although the questions and answers are written in the language of the early 20th century, like a lovely piece of china from another era, they are as meaningful today as they were then. We may now hear good news from far away not by post but by e-mail. But there is nothing dated about the advice to pay attention, have a sense of humor, and finding congenial work. The White Magic Book is simple to use: pick a question, let your finger fall to a symbol on the Table of Jupiter, and find the corresponding answer.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Unfortunately we know little about Mrs. John Le Breton. She may have written other books, but we have been unable to find them. She likely lived in England, since the book was first published there. Clearly she was well educated in both traditional subjects and metaphysics. Her legacy in this book is both a mystery and a revelation of the mystery of intuitive powers.

Monte Farber, with his wife Amy Zerner, is the creator of many oracles and spiritual aids, including The Psychic Circle, Gifts of the Goddess Affirmation Cards, and many more. Together they are the authors of Light, Laughter, and Love: Secrets of the Enchanted Couple (Red Wheel, 2002), the inspirational story of an enchanted 30-year partnership in life and work, with ideas and advice for readers, forthcoming from Red Wheel. They live on Long Island, NY.
